

2023 Lake County Farm Bureau Agricultural Scholarship Application

The Lake County Farm Bureau Scholarship fund was created to provide financial assistance to Lake County students pursuing a career in the agricultural industry. The scholarships are awarded annually based on academic achievement, career goals, extracurricular activities, leadership skills, and a commitment to study agriculture. The LCFB Scholarship is open to all Lake County high school students or graduates enrolled in an accredited college or university studying an ag-based major.

How to Apply:

Complete the application and attach an official transcript. You must also include two letters of recommendation and an essay that describes your past, present, and future involvement in agriculture. Applications must be postmarked or received by the Lake County Farm Bureau office no later than April 24th, 2023. Application forms can be downloaded at www.lakecofb.com and will also be available at the LCFB office.

General Requirements:

The following requirements apply to all Lake County Farm Bureau scholarships.

- Applicant must be enrolled in or have graduated from a high school in Lake County, California.
- Scholarships may be applied at an accredited college or university of the applicant's choice which offers courses leading to a certificate or degree in a recognized profession or vocation in agriculture.
- Applicants who are awarded a scholarship are required to provide proof of enrollment with the Lake County Farm Bureau before funds can be distributed. All scholarships awarded by the Farm Bureau are to be claimed within one (1) year of the date of award unless specifically extended by the Farm Bureau. These funds may be used for valid educational expenses. Any part of the award not used by the deadline date will be forfeited.
- Incomplete applications and applications not postmarked by the deadline will be automatically disqualified from judging. It is the applicant's responsibility to see that all forms are completed and returned to the Farm Bureau office by the submission deadline.
